Heaven's Report Cards

The main goals of a government are to unify and protect its people, grow its size and population, improve technology and increase artistic achievement. Rate each of the Chinese dynasties based on how well (or poorly) they did these things. For each category give a grade A through F (or NG for No Grade) and a short reason why you are giving that grade. The 1st is completed for you – be sure to review it.

Q'in Dynasty		Han Dynasty
Unity/Power/Size: They unified writing and laws but they made people so angry that they fought back against them so they only lasted a short time.		Unity/Power/Size:
Technology:	B-	Technology:
Began building The Great Wall and built a road system.
Art/Architecture:	 	Art/Architecture:
Built statues but not really	for artistic reasons.
Overall:	B _	Overall:
They unified the people but didn't last long and didn't really invent that much. Plus, they were violent and quite hated by many.
